

Name: _____

HONORS ENGLISH 12

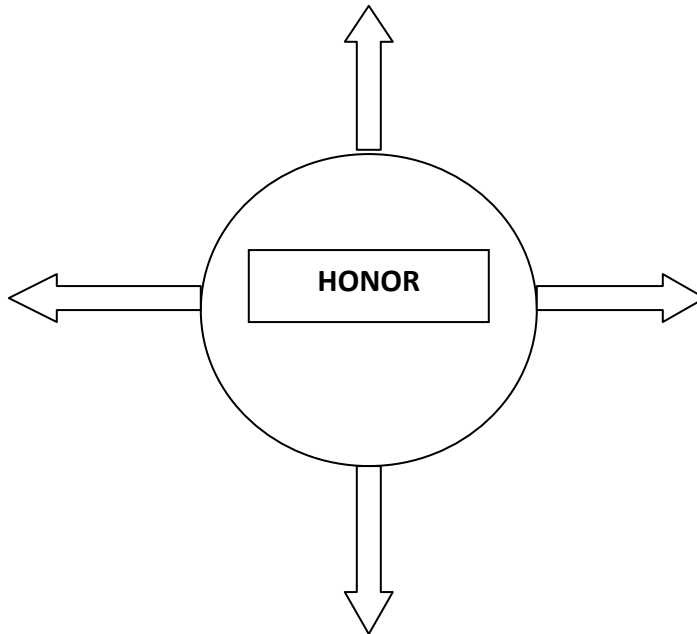

Date: _____

Period 8

Please Do Now:

Suppose that you hear someone say, "The student-council president should be a person of honor." What qualities or ideals come to mind?

Create a word web, jotting down words or phrases that you think describe an honorable person.

BUILD BACKGROUND

Reread p. 209 and fill in the following blanks using the information provided

1. Medieval aristocrats relished tales of _____, especially those of brave knights.

2. Although real knights were far from perfect, legendary knights obeyed a code of _____.

3. Their code represented both Christian and military ideals, including:

4. Especially popular during the medieval period were the legends of _____ and his heroic knights of the _____.
5. The popularity of the tales was due in part to the _____ in which they were set.
6. It was a world of _____ a world quite unlike the real medieval England, with its _____.
7. Although _____ was often presented as the greatest of Arthur's knights, in early tales that role was given to Arthur's nephew _____ who was famous for his courage and chivalry.

LITERARY ANALYSIS

Reread the definition of romance on p. 209 and use the information to take notes on the chart below:

LITERARY TERM	DEFINITION	CHARACTERISTICS
ROMANCE		